

CELEBRATING the election of Gloria Elbling to the National Presidency of NA'AMAT, U.S.A.--formerly Pioneer Women/Na'amat--was a large delegation of Pittsburghers, 30 members and husbands. A demonstraton by the delegates wearing Pittsburgh Pirate hats and signs proclaiming the many attributes of the incoming President was staged at the Tel Aviv Hilton. From left: Carole Wolsh, and Gloria Elbling.

LOOKING on were from left, seated: Esther Zackler, past National Na'amat president now living in Israel; Masha Lubelsky, secretary-general Na'amat Israel; Nava Arad, member of Knesset. Standing, from left: Sophie Goldman, Frances Levitte, Ethel Spector, president, Ness Zionia Chapter. Pittsburgh Na'amat members and friends will hold a city-wide Celebration Dinner Saturday evening, Dec. 21 at 7 p.m., Beth Shalom Social Hall. Reservations are $18 per person. Call Gert Marcuson, 781-2055 or Cookie Elbling, 521-1889 for reservations. An original program created by Shirley Katz will be presented.

JOINING the celebration were from left: Heather Stein, National Board member; Carole Wolsh, past National Board member; Florence McChesney, president, Shalom Chapter; Ruth Lasday, executive secretary, Pittsburgh Council.