PASSOVER--THE SPIRIT OF FREEDOM

What is the spirit of freedom and why should we, as the children of Israel, place such emphasis on it? Freedom is a universal concept which has filled the pages of history since the dawn of civilization. The Jewish people not only share in this universal concept but have contributed gloriously towards its ideals.

The spirit of Passover can be found in our determined effort to make known to mankind that we were once slaves in the Land of Egypt. By this statement alone, by pointing to the rigors and hardships, the terrible conditions, and the inhumanity of slavery, do we so forcefully bring home the Passover message.

Thus we come to appreciate any favor that God would give us. It would be sufficient had God only brought us out of Egypt, out of bondage, and not divided the Red Sea. It would be sufficient had He permitted us to cross the sea on dry land and not sustained us for forty years in the desert.

How much more grateful are we, therefore, that God has given us besides: the Torah, the Sabbath, the Land of Israel? How fortunate are we that we could share in the bounties our religion showers on us, and asks us to accept!

This IS the Spirit of Passover, this IS the spirit of freedom. This IS for us...our way of life.
