New Castle Jewry Lays Cornerstone for New Synagogue at Impressive Ceremonies

Dignity, reverence and sincerity marked the ceremonies connected with the laying of the cornerstone of Temple Israel, New Castle, on Wednesday afternoon, May 25, 1927, attended by the membership of the congregation and a number of guests. The main address was delivered by Rabbi Ira William Bick-rick of Erie, and a number of New Castle members also spoke.

Marcus Feuchtwanger in Charge

The president of the congregation, Professor Marcus Feuchtwanger, preceded at the exercises and the invocation by Rev. Howard B. Stetson, of Trinity Church, New York, and a short introductory address. At the conclusion of the prayers, the ministrations of the rabbi were placed upon the organization of Temple Israel and the names of congratulation, Marcus Feuchtwanger.

Miss Florence Weinberg and Miss Dona Whinick sang a duet and following this the concerts were filled with various articles. Among them were the minutes and liturgies of a Star of David, presented by the Sisterhood and a number of spirits choral groups.

Mr. Bickel invited the people who will worship in the temple to take advantage of the exchange offer and may expire about June 15th.

Seven Hundred Fete Louis Lipsky at Testimonial Dinner

Zionist Leader is Presented by Adelweiss with Three Boxes of His Selected Writings

Over 700 prominent Zionists from New York and other cities throughout the country were present at the dinner given Sunday evening at the Astor Hotel by the Lipsky Jubilee Committee to celebrate his fiftieth anniversary and thirty years of service in the Zionist movement.

The selected writings of Lipsky, consisting of three volumes and Hernandh with a memoir on thirty years of Zionism in America is to be published by the committee. The dedication was presented by Dr. Stephen S. Wise to Mr. Lipsky in behalf of the Jubilee Com-

Isadore D. Morrison, one of the pioneer Zionist workers in America, acted as master of ceremonies and skill displayed in his career in the Zionist movement and his qualities for leadership.

Mr. Morrison, during the course of his remarks introduced the principal speaker, Rabbi Isaac Gravshuken, of Poland, who recently visited the United States as a delegate of the American Jewish Congress. Rabbi Lipsky, speaking for the few leaders who had the courage to admit mistakes when such were committed, Mr. Morrison stated.

Glowing tributes were paid to Mr. Lipsky by the speakers, each of whom Henrietta Roed, Rev. Z. H. Maislinsky, Mrs. Ira Lindheim, Mrs. Richard Got-
