A special meeting of the Congregation, with full quorum attending, was called to order by President Irwin Yanowitz. This meeting was called to act upon the issue of allowing the students of the Religious School of the B'nai Zion Synagogue to attend the Religious School of Temple Beth Israel on a trial basis for the balance of this term.

Mr. Yanowitz explained in detail the problems involved, the terms of acceptance of these children into our school, financial arrangement and appraised the membership of all the previous meetings held prior to this final special meeting.

After much deliberation and questioning, the matter was thoroughly and frankly handled, and every facet of the problem explored.

A motion was made by Mr. Harold Rosenblum, and seconded by Mr. Martin Shanks, to: the Congregation accept the recommendation of the Board of Directors, the Religious School Committee, the Religious Practices Committee and the Religious School Faculty, to accept the students of the B'nai Zion Synagogue into the Temple Religious School on a trial basis for the balance of this school term, according to the rules set down and explained by the combined committees and Board of Directors. The motion was unanimously carried.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
